ABOUT

- Hailing from the vibrant city of Chicago, Danny's culinary journey began with the rich flavors of his Italian heritage. Raised by a family deeply rooted in Sicilian traditions, Danny's love for food was ignited by his grandmother, who passed down her secret sauce recipe and culinary wisdom. Growing up in this environment, surrounded by the aromas of homemade pasta sauces and the warmth of family gatherings, he found his passion for cooking.
- Unsure of his path when he started college, he found his true calling through a friend's invitation to join the world of athletic performing arts. Embracing this newfound passion, Danny honed his skills as a trampoline and aerial artist, captivating audiences with his gravity-defying stunts and performances.
- Today, Danny continues to push the boundaries of culinary and performance artistry. Combining his expertise in cooking with his love for the performing arts, he orchestrates mesmerizing acts that intertwine gastronomy with aerial acrobatics. From executing solo trampoline tricks to preparing gourmet dishes atop a trampoline wall, Danny's performances are a feast for the senses, blending athleticism, creativity, and culinary excellence.
- Among his favorite dishes are culinary delights like Paccheri Pasta with beet root parmesan, Rice Pilaf with Sweet Salmon and Spinach, and Potato Gnocchi in a creamy pesto sauce.
- Danny's act will feature him alongside 1-3 fellow trampoline and aerial artists, combining their talents to deliver a visually stunning performance. Utilizing a trampoline wall and aerial hammocks/silks, they will create an impressive spectacle that captivates the audience. Positioned at the top of the trampoline wall, a prep table will serve as Danny's workstation, where he, as the chef, will prepare a delectable dish of ricotta gnocchi. Amidst executing both solo and group trampoline tricks, Danny will seamlessly transition to his culinary duties, showcasing his multitasking abilities. Throughout the act, the aerial hammocks/silks will be incorporated, adding an extra layer of excitement and artistry to the performance.
