TALENT: MAGIC

ABOUT

- Growing up in LA, Noah gained a passion for cooking from his mom and his grandfather, both of whom were great cooks in their own right. Eventually, Noah learned to cook for himself — and he started sharing his love for food with his friends and family.
- Noah has a background in magic — he learned his bag of tricks from reading books and watching videos. As a kid, Noah was even a member of the infamous Magic Castle. Additionally, his fear of heights motivated him to tackle his aversion head on — he started learning aerial silks, acrobatics, partner acro, tumbling silks, straps and flying trapeze, among other performance stunts.
- He is an avid outdoors junkie who hikes, skis, climbs and loves being in nature. In fact, Noah was even a member of the Mammoth Mountain Ski Patrol, with whom he did rescue and medical work.
- Noah's act is a tantalizing blend of mentalism and larger-than-life illusions that will have audiences on the edge of their seats. With an air of mystery and a twinkle in his eye, he places bewitching boxes before the judges, inviting them to choose ingredients that defy the bounds of reality. As their selections materialize, magically appearing either within the boxes or in a waiting refrigerator, Noah weaves his spellbinding magic. And just when you think you've seen it all, he astounds with a culinary masterpiece incorporating every chosen ingredient. Levitating wine bottles add a dash of flair to his mesmerizing performance, leaving the audience gasping in wonder. But Noah's imagination knows no bounds; for future acts, he promises to blend magic with dance, aerials, or juggling/acrobatics, ensuring that each performance is a whirlwind of enchantment and delight.
